

Just Thinkin' About...

By Pastor Ron Lundy

Please, don't miss it...

"Thanks Pastor but I'm OK. I'm saved, I received Jesus as my personal Savior but I don't believe I have to go to church to be a good person".

Herein lies a serious problem that is hurting the cause of Christ. The idea that church is unimportant is like saying an army is not necessary in a war, or children are not necessary to a family. A Christian is both a warrior for God in the Cause of Christ, and a child of God in the arms of Christ.

A warrior is one who takes the Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God, and declares the message of love and hope to a needy world. He is called a warrior because he is willing to make sacrifices in order to fulfill this commission of love and grace, given him by His Savior.

He is also a child of God. Though church is not intended to replace the family unit, it is modeled after the family in that it is a place of acceptance and growth. "Fellowship" is a Christian word that describes our enjoyment of meeting together and sharing the things of Christ while growing together in grace through hearing His Word, learning from one another, and building one another.

1 John3:14: We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren.

Don't miss all that He has for you.
