

Just Thinkin' About...

By Pastor Ron Lundy

A chuckle with a moral.....

We had a birthday party at our house the other day for our youngest granddaughter. After the chaos had died down and it was time to start packing up to go home, my son set off with his camera in hand, looking for the case, while my daughter-in-law set off with the case in hand, looking for the camera.

After a few minutes they found each other; and what they were looking for. I thought this to be quite funny and immediately promised to publish the whole matter, complete with a moral, dutifully and predictively attached, and here it is.

Everyone comes to church looking for something that will fill a specific need of their own, or they come looking for someone who has a need they can fill. Whether you are carrying the case or the camera, the satisfaction of finding each other is the same.

A lot of people do not know what church is for. Jesus knew. He said, "By this shall all men know that you are my disciples, that you have love, one to another".

See ya there!
