

Just Thinkin' About...

Thanksgiving...

I know it was more than a week ago, but I feel I must comment on my favorite Holiday.

Unspoiled by commercialism, right priorities still in focus, Thanksgiving is the only holiday that retains its original purpose. And what a great purpose that is. Gratitude is the beginning point of all worthy sentiments. Love, faithfulness, humility, commitment, and selflessness, all bloom from seeds that have been sown in the rich soil of gratitude.

A heart devoid of gratitude is a dark and dry place. Nothing takes root there; nothing grows. How sad. It would serve us all well to remember that life itself is a gift from God. Eternal life in Christ is also His gift. Knowing this, it would take more effort to be unthankful than it takes to be thankful.

Take the easy way, tell Him thank you, take as much time as you need to do it right.
